FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Dr. ! FUNRAL.—The funeral of the late Dr. S. C. Smoot took place yesterday from the Caivary Baptist church, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The corpes was eased in a handsome manegany coffin, furnished by Jos. Gawier, undertaker. It was covered with black cloth, on which there was a plate with the name and age of the deceased. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Howlest, pastor of the church, who delivered an impressive discourse. He was sasisted by Rev. Dr. Gray, of the E-street church. The pall-bearers were Drs. Hagmer and J. C. Riley, Capt. Fillebrown, and Massrs. D. G. Ridgeley, Frank Stickney, and Wm. Norton. After the services the cortege, which was ene of the largest ever seen in this city, nearly all the members of the medical profession being in attendance, proceeded to the Congressional Cemetry, where the remains were interred.

GARROTED.—On last Monday night about GARROYED.—On last Monday night about 10/o'clock a man named John Storr was attacked near the Four-and-a-half street bridge by two men and robbed of a silver watch and about $3 in money Storr went to the Fourth ward station-house and notified Sergeant Walling, who immediately started in pursuit of the robbers. On Four-and-a-half street, near the avenue, he noticed two men coming out of a restaurant, both of whom he arrested, but one of them succeeded in making his escape. The officer, however, held to one man, and finally got him to the station, where he gave his neares as George Rawlings. This morning Justice Walter examined Rawlings, and Storr fully identified him. He was committed for court.

TARE HEED LEST YE FALL!-We TARE HEED LEST YE FALL!—We would call the attention of the proper authorities to the fact that the temporary bridge spanning the new street running parallel with the west front of the Treasury building to the President's grounds is getting alarmingly shaky. As hundreds of pedestrians pass and repass daily over this bridge, its sudden downfall, which may be predicted with certainty if not strengthened, might result disastronisty to a score or more of unsuspecting people. The bridge should either be made stronger by means of additional supports or removed entirely.

A Young Thirr.—Yesterday morning, a lady, while getting out of her carriage at Lewis Johnscu's bank, dropped her pocket-book, containing about six dollars, and before she discovered her loss a colored boot-black had pleked up the pocket-book and run off with it. Detective Clarvoe succeeded in arresting the boy and took him to police headquarters, where he gave his name as Henry Lawson. The pocket-book, with thirty cents in money, was recovered, and the accused locked up for a hearing before Major Richards.

BYGOKE, lately appointed Justice of the Peace, by the President, has opened an office at No. 215 F street, be-tween Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, where he will attend to all business requiring the services of a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner of Deeds. Unaimants for the bounty under the act of July 28, 1866, can have their papers promptly prepared at Mr. Brooke's office. See advertisament in another rolumn.
